

Key Safety Systems (KSS) is a global leader in mobility safety based in Michigan, USA. Drawing from 100 years of innovation and industry leadership, the company supplies safety systems for more than 300 vehicle models made by the world's leading automotive makers.

US HEADQUARTERS: Michigan, USA, incorporated in Delaware

INDEPENDENTLY OPERATED: KSS is an independently operated entity within Joyson Electronics. KSS operates with an independent capital structure and separate Board of Directors

EXPERIENCED EXECUTIVE TEAM: The Company is managed by a U.S.-based executive team with a total 200 years of auto safety experience

100 YEAR HISTORY: Originally established in 1916

GLOBAL PRESENCE: 32 facilities in 14 countries on 4 continents (including 8 locations in the U.S. and 2 in Japan)

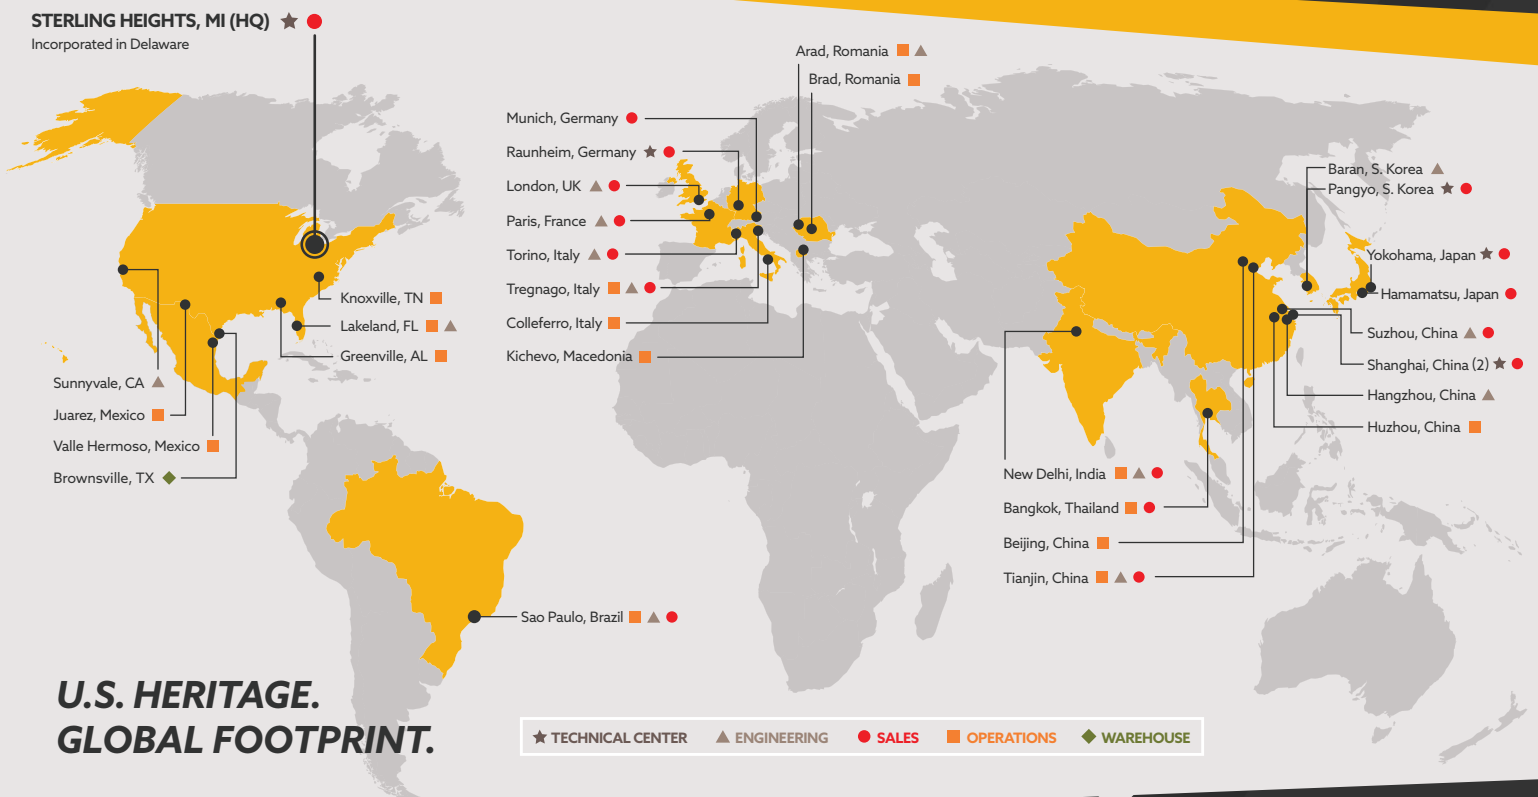

GLOBAL CUSTOMERS: 60 major automotive makers, including BMW, Fiat Chrysler, Ford, General Motors, Hyundai, Isuzu, Suzuki and Volkswagen

EMPLOYEES: ~13,000 worldwide

SAFETY PATENTS: ~900 critical patents in automotive safety

2016 REVENUE: $1.8 billion

INDUSTRY-LEADING GROWTH: KSS has been the fastest growing company in the automotive safety market since 2009

13,000 employees

32 Facilities in 14 countries on 4 continents

5 main technical centers in North America, Europe and Asia